

This is the final project that was completed at Good Shepherd Academy, celebrating both Autism Awareness Month in April, as well as the return of the majority of the Guardian Nation back to GSA campus, after the hybrid learning model. Every in-person student (and staff member) in the school was invited to design a feather, which ultimately created this mural. Hope this inspires you to "embrace your own wings and fly!"

